Hey Ladies!

Thank you so much for joining me in the joyful experience that is Mally Beauty... Here, we love being a Girl, a Woman, truly celebrating and reveling in being Female!

There is nothing I love more than sharing my secrets and tricks with women so that they can feel their best. I want you to feel strong, sexy, and confident so that you can go out there and conquer the world. I want you to forget all that negative stuff you may have heard and realize that we are not all beauty clones. Love yourself... Whatever makes you different makes you beautiful, that's what I was always taught growing up. I want my makeup to become part of your beauty ritual. Whether you take three minutes to get ready or three hours, (yeah right!), I want to make products that make you look and feel sensational all day long. I want it to be easy and I want you to love every second of it.

I have always loved makeup and skin.

Since I was a child, I have put makeup on anything that was not nailed down. My parents were doctors so I just assumed that that's what I was going to be, but I couldn't deny my passion for makeup. So, I worked really hard, got a great agent that believed in me and years later, here we are. I found that I could do what I loved... Follow your dreams, they can become a reality!

As much as I love working with all those glamorous celebrities, what I REALLY adore is working with babes like you! In designing this line, I took all my years of tips and tricks and really thought about us REAL GIRLS and our needs. We have to go out and be Superwoman, look fabulous doing it, and get there in a snap. My stuff is fool proof, easy, gorgeous... no drama... just fabulous YOU!

To me, every day is a performance.

Whether I am getting a client ready for a stadium-filled concert, a scene in a movie or a photo shoot or teaching a fabulous woman how to get her makeup on to tackle her errands, I see her day as her performance. If you think about it, it makes sense. You are a Superwoman and you must go out and perform, achieve and kick butt... AND you must always look gorgeous doing it!

This foundation is going to change your life! I am sooo proud of it and wish I could be there with you to see your excitement when you first try it on!

Before I made this, it literally took me several (okay, eight... yes, EIGHT!) products that I had to mix together to get the results that I wanted. I wanted glowy, dewy skin but not shiny. I wanted poreless, porcelain finish but not doll-like. I wanted full coverage but not TOO full; still need to see the skin! I wanted it to be long lasting but never cakey or artificial looking and certainly not falling into fine lines and wrinkles. I wanted the Ultimate Performance. This was after all what my A-List clientele demand and expect from me! Well, I made it and now all of those products are in one sexy compact!

Another amazing thing about this incredible foundation is the awesome sponge applicator that I give you! Not only is it super large so you can get that foundation on in a flash, but it also has three awesome corners that you can use to really get in those hard to reach places such as the sides of the nose, inside the bridge of the nose, etc. A perfect combination for perfect flawless skin!

So, go on, get ready for your close up...

with my Ultimate Performance professional foundation, Honey, you are READY!!!
